

JOHN-IVAN PALMER HYPNOTIST

WORLD'S FASTEST HYPNOTIST

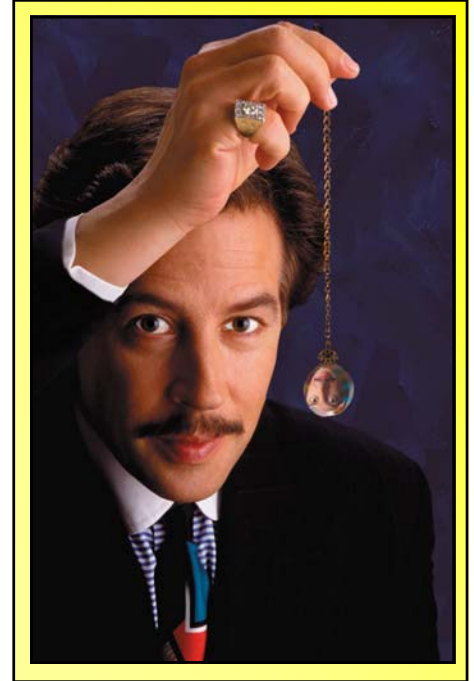

Many people wonder if hypnotism is for real. Once you witness John-Ivan Palmer in action, they'll be little doubt in your mind that anyone — your co-worker, friend or relative — is susceptible to his power of suggestion. But what's truly astounding is the lightning speed with which members of the audience can fall under his spell. "How fast?," you ask. Sometimes it takes less than 15 seconds!

THE ULTIMATE AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION ACT

Between 15 and 20 guests will be invited on stage to take part in the hypno-antics. What happens? After a brief induction ceremony, Mr. Palmer proves to all doubters that his subjects are indeed mesmerized. They obey his commands, prove themselves impervious to pain, and even forget how to count.

YOU ARE GETTING SLEEPY...

The son of famous vaudevillian, Jack Pyle, performing has been in John's blood since he was a child. He's trained himself to memorize the entire contents of Time Magazine — every week! But, thanks to his show business background, he makes the "total recall" segment of his act very entertaining. Even skeptics are impressed. But when his on-stage volunteers go into their deep trance the real fun begins. They forget their name, speak languages they've never learned and display bursts of creativity the likes of which you've never seen.

Master Hypnotist John Ivan Palmer mesmerizes corporate audiences with his power of suggestion.

Sales, marketing and operations of American Home Shield fall into a deep trance at their annual meeting at Chicago's Palmer House Hilton.

CORPORATE HYPNOSIS

In the 1980s he appeared with many stars including Kenny Rogers, Jerry Lee Lewis and Ray Charles, and was a featured act on the state fair and college circuit. Today, corporations such as IBM, Cargill, Andersen Consulting and 3M, along with hundreds of smaller companies call on John-Ivan Palmer to make their employees the Stars of the Show.
